BE A HERO: FULLY, FAIRLY, AND KNOWLEDGEABLY LITIGATING MATTERS INVOLVING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AND SEXUAL ASSAULT SURVIVORS

Co-sponsored by CCCBA and its Women's Section

1.5 Hours Legal Ethics MCLE Credit and 1 Hour Elimination of Bias MCLE Credit

Whether you practice employment, civil, criminal defense, or family law, you are going to cross paths with a survivor of domestic violence or sexual assault. The survivor may be your client, witness, or opposing party. Do you know how to protect your client? Are you aware of the ethical considerations with opposing parties? Do you know available services? Has your bias impacted effective advocacy? This seminar will utilize real-world scenarios, and is designed for all practitioners.

TRIALS 101: CIVIL PRETRIAL CASE MANAGEMENT

Co-sponsored by CCCBA and its Barristers/Young Attorneys and Litigation Sections

1.5 Hours General and .50 Hours Legal Ethics MCLE Credit

The panel will examine handling a case from inception to pretrial. The discussion will focus on filing and answering a complaint, propounding and responding to discovery, taking and defending depositions, and filing and opposing dispositive motions. Common ethical issues that may arise early in a case will also be reviewed. This aspect of the discussion will look at handling conflict considerations, informing prospective clients of statutes of limitations, interacting with opposing counsel and ethical considerations in motion practice.

SETTLING DISPUTES AND THE BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES: RESEARCH RESULTS AND SUCCESSFUL SETTLEMENT STRATEGIES

Co-sponsored by CCCBA and its Alternative Dispute Resolution and Litigation Sections
2 Hours General MCLE Credit

This program will first provide the findings of Professor Shestowsky's multi-court research on client preferences for different dispute resolution options, including negotiation, mediation, arbitration and trial. She will also summarize research findings on the criteria that litigants tend to use when evaluating their options. Professor Shestowsky and Mark LeHocky, who also teaches Mediation Advocacy, will then explore attorney handicapping errors, their practical implications and proven strategies to help clients best assess, manage and settle civil disputes.

UNIQUE PROVISIONS IN ESTATE PLANNING: DRAFTING AND PRACTICAL APPLICATIONS

Co-sponsored by CCCBA and its Estate Planning and Probate Section
2 Hours Estate Planning & Probate Specialization MCLE Credit

This noteworthy panel is composed of estate plan drafters and litigators. They will address several common areas of concern that may be found in estate planning documents in the aftermath of implementing the wishes of the decedent, particularly if litigation arises from the probate and/or trust administration process. Both planners and litigators will come away with a more succinct understanding of addressing these issues, including implementation of life estates, special needs trusts, geriatric marriages, and use of referee hearings in trust, estate and conservatorship matters.

FERRIS BUELLER'S 12 WEEKS OFF – LEAVE LAW FROM EVERY ANGLE

Co-sponsored by CCCBA and its Employment Law Section
2 Hours General MCLE Credit

This program will take you through the leave laws most likely to affect employees and employers in California. We will discuss the Family Medical Leave Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and the California Family Rights Act, as well as California's pregnancy, sick, and domestic violence leaves. These similar and overlapping, but not identical, laws are challenging to navigate. Whether traversing these leaves is new to you, or if this will be a refresher course, this presentation will be packed with information and is not to be missed.

WAYS TO PROTECT YOUR NEW PRODUCT - PUTTING THE INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY STRATEGIES IN PLACE

Co-sponsored by CCCBA and its Intellectual Property Section

2 Hours General MCLE Credit

It is estimated that two thirds of the value of technology businesses in the US is due to intangible or intellectual property, but most businesses do not do enough to protect these assets. Intellectual property issues arise when new products are introduced to market. Understanding IP requirements including trademarks, patent and trade secret strategies to eliminate timing issues and protect your intellectual property is imperative for continued business value, stability and growth. The panelists will give expert advice for new products and share their experiences.

SOLVE BEFORE YOU SUE – PATHWAYS TO EARLY DISPOSITION THROUGH MEDIATION

Sponsored by CCCBA and its Alternative Dispute Resolution and Family Law Sections

2 Hours General MCLE Credit

Courts and contracts of all types encourage parties in conflict to attempt to resolve them without, and certainly before, resorting to litigation or even arbitration. A panel of litigators and mediators across practice areas, including personal injury/casualty, family law, probate/trusts and real estate/commercial will discuss pathways to early disposition using pre-litigation mediation and provide practical tips on how to accomplish this efficiently and cost effectively.
