

Tni Jackson, Principal Appraiser, Contra Costa County

Bio

After graduating from Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, Tni Jackson moved to the Bay Area and started her long and diverse career in real estate. She started out as a Real Estate Appraiser for a Savings and Loan in the South Bay. Before joining the Contra Costa Assessor's Office, she ran her own Real Estate Appraisal Company and dabbled in Real Estate Sales for a number of years. She maintains her California Certified Real Estate Appraisal License and Real Estate Sales License.

Currently, she is the Principal Appraiser for the Standards Division and believes this is an exciting but challenging time, implementing and interpreting the new legislation – Proposition 19.
