About the CCCBA

About the Contra Costa County Bar Association

The Contra Costa County Bar Association is a nonprofit organization dedicated to offering support in matters of the law, the legal community and the judicial system. Trusted since 1934, we continue to serve thousands of professionals and members of the public every year.

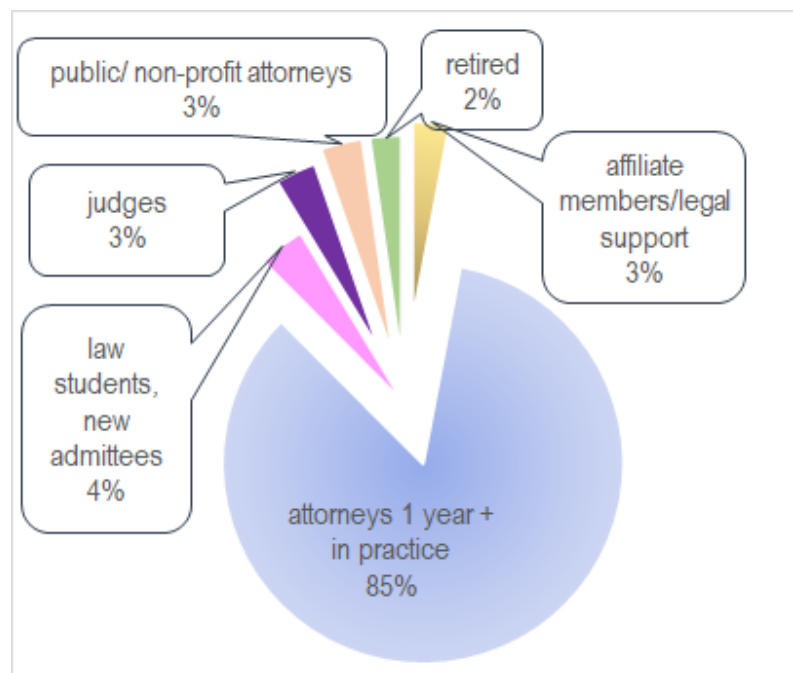

The Contra Costa County Bar Association is a voluntary association of legal professionals and affiliates. As part of its services, the Bar Association offers timely and relevant information to its members through legal education programs and popular print and online publications.

With 22 sections, the CCCBA has a very active membership in a variety of practice areas. CCCBA members are community leaders with reach into a variety of businesses and government agencies. Members volunteer their time to write and edit articles for the award winning Contra Costa Lawyer magazine. CCCBA and its sections produce over 100 events each year.

Terms & Conditions

Advertising Conditions

Advertiser and CCCBA agree that all accepted advertisements are published on the representation that Advertiser is authorized to publish the entire contents and subject matter of the advertisement(s). Advertiser agrees that publication of the advertisement is not to be construed as an endorsement by the CCCBA, its directors or members, of the product or service offered.

Advertiser will defend, indemnify, and hold the CCCBA and its publications harmless from and against any loss, expense, or other liability resulting from any claims or suits for libel, violation of rights of privacy or publicity, plagiarism, copyright or trademark infringement and any other claims or suits that may arise out of publication of such advertisements, and further guarantees to reimburse publisher for any and all costs of collection and/ or attorney fees and court costs.

All advertising is subject to approval by the publisher. The publisher reserves the right at any time to decline any advertising which it feels may be inappropriate. The following is a non-exclusive list of advertising which is unacceptable to the publisher:

- Advertising for products or services that are illegal.
- Advertising which contains unlawful discriminatory language.
- Advertising by which the advertiser violates or may encourage or enable another to violate the California Supreme Court's Rules of Professional Conduct.
- Advertising which may in subject matter, content, material or design, jeopardize the mailing status of the publication. The publisher reserves the right to require clearance from the U.S. Postal Service.

Contract / Copy Conditions

PAYMENT TERMS | Pre-payment is required for a single ad. Fifty percent (50%) of the total contract is required for consecutive ads. Advertiser shall pay all invoices for advertising provided hereunder within 30 days of the invoice date. Interest on overdue amounts will be charged at the rate of one and one-half percent per month. Funds collected in advance of advertising produced are non-refundable under any circumstances. Failure to acknowledge or return ad proof will not alter contract payment terms or obligations. The CCCBA shall have the right to cease publishing any advertisement purchased hereunder in the event that Advertiser fails to pay any invoice within 30 days of the date of the invoice.

CONTRACT YEAR | Advertising must be inserted within one year of the first insertion to earn the frequency discounts.

CANCELLATIONS | If an ad is cancelled by the Advertiser for any reason prior to fulfillment of the contract, Advertiser will be charged back for all costs incurred, including layout. In the event of cancellation, the charge for ad space will be calculated at the higher insertion rate for each advertisement actually published.

ADVERTISING RESPONSIBILITY | Staff of the CCCBA must be notified in writing within 10 days of receipt of publication of any errors in advertising or printing flaws. Otherwise billing for said advertising will be held indisputable. The CCCBA will not be liable for any oral agreements or specific arrangements contrary to or in addition to the written contract. If advertiser fails to submit acceptable advertising copy or artwork, any production charges will be billed additionally to the Advertiser.

In the event that the CCCBA institutes any action or proceedings against Advertiser to collect fees incurred under the contract, Advertiser shall pay all collection costs incurred, including attorney fees, court costs, interest and the fees of any collection agency to whom the account is tendered.
