WHAT WE DO FOR YOU...

The Contra Costa County Bar Association (CCCBA) assists its members in developing and improving their practice of law by providing information, services, networking opportunities, career development programs and other resources. Most programs conducted or sponsored by CCCBA offer substantial discounts to members.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT & NETWORKING

CCCBA, together with its numerous sections and committees, offers frequent seminars, courses and forums that fulfill the State Bar of California’s MCLE requirements. Self-study articles are available in our monthly magazine, the Contra Costa Lawyer, and on our website, www.cccba.org. Membership in any of our many sections provides opportunities to network with other practitioners who share common interests. Go to www.cccba.org to see:

This public service is certified by the state bar and provides an important legal resource to people who need help but don’t know where to turn. LRIS members must meet specific experience requirements prior to acceptance. For information on joining, call Barbara Arsedo at (925) 370-2544.
