FLARe APPLICATION

Attorney: _____

The Family Law Alternative Dispute Program's Mediation Panel is made up of attorneys with special training in mediation and a commitment to finding an alternative to litigation. To qualify for this panel, you must have the following experience:

- I have been licensed to practice law for at least 5 years;
- I have completed at least 40 hours of MCLE-approved basic training in family law mediation;
- I have had at least 20 hours of MCLE-approved training in family law issues during the last two years, including at least 6 hours of advanced MCLE-approved mediation training each year;
- I am a Certified Specialist in Family Law or devote at least 50% of my practice to family law; and
- I am a member of the Contra Costa County Bar Association's Lawyer Referral and Information Service;
- I agree to provide the first 90 minutes of mediation for $150.00 (Option "A" only).

Option "A" - 90-minute joint mediation session. Attorney/mediator receives $120.00 directly from the LRIS.

Option "B" - 30-minute joint mediation orientation. No remuneration for attorney/mediator.

Option "C" - 30-minute individual pre-mediation consultation. No remuneration for attorney/mediator.

I verify that I meet the qualifications to participate on the FLARe program:
